MURMURMONTIS

LAURA RECTOR

Nature, exerting an unwearied power,
Forms, opens, and gives scent to every flower;
Spreads the fresh verdure of the fields,
And leads the dancing Naiads through the dewy meads.

TO THE HONORED MEMORY
OF CECELIA ALEXANDER
FOR NINETEEN YEARS
LIBRARIAN OF WEST
VIRGINIA WESLEYAN

MISS ALEXANDER will long be remembered by generations of the sons and daughters of Wesleyan as a woman of strong character, attractive personality and noble ideals. As a librarian through years of faithful, sacrificing service, she grandly built her life into that of the institution. As a human being, she ever exemplified the things which are honest and best and pure and upright. The echoes of her life will roll from soul to soul and grow forever and forever.

PAUL GIVEN

DUNDON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Class President, '29; Student Council; Wesleyan Players; Philosophical Club; Pi Kappa Delta; Y. M. C. A.; Debate, '27; Assistant Football Manager, '27; Pharos Staff, '27; Editor Murmurmontis; Class Basketball Manager, '26; Fresbman Initiation Board, '27.

"But he, while his companions slept, was toiling upward in the night."

When he thought a thing he said it, when he tried a thing he meant it, so why worry about one who can take care of himself. A man who executes his daily duties without a grumble and one who is always willing to lend a helping hand is deserving of something greater than praise

MARIAN CANAN

GOOD HOPE, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha; Choir; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.

"Happiness is cheaper than worry, so why pay the higher price."

Although Marian never says much at any time, what she does say is "said with music". She is a very talented musician and also has a bit of rare humor—coming at a most unexpected time.

JOHN E. ELKINS

LOGAN, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi, Vice-President; Benzene Ring; Class Vice-President, '29.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

"Laugh and the world laughs with you. Frown and you'll make people think you're a pessimist." This is the belief of this young man and we think that he is right because nobody ever heard him say anything pessimistic when there was something humorous to be said. Steady and loyal he went about showing that he was a minister of sunshine, and we hope that the world in which he continues to move will be brightened by his wit May the golden crown of success attend your efforts, John.

LLOYD DEXTER DAVIS

Buckhannon, W. Va.

Track, '25; Football, '25-'28; Basketball, '25; Sigma Eta Delta

"So much one man can do,
That does both act and know."

Ah, there he goes around the end, beats the other fellow and goes over for a touchdown! Yes, that is Deck, the fleet-footed football carrier. Many times has he done that for Wesleyan, and now he is going out into the world to try his ability at racing in other games. We have no doubt but that he will win in the race of life because he is a scholar as well as an athlete. Good luck to you, Deck.

RUTH CRABTREE

Huntington, W. Va.

Kappa Phi Omega; Orchestra, '26; Haught Literary, Vice-President, '28; Excelsior, Vice-President, '27; Freshman Board, '28; Inter-Fraternity Council, '28; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A., Secretary, '27, Vice-President, '28, President, '29; Class Treasurer, '28; Class Secretary, '29; Secretary Pharos Board of Control, '28-'29; Broaddus, '26.

"They build too low who build beneath the stars."

It seems little enough to say of Ruth that she is one upon whom you can depend for anything—but wait until you are in a tight place, and you'll find what a very good quality it is, for a friend to have. Ruth is always willing to help with everything, and 'tis good to know that she can be depended upon.

WILLIAM DRUMMOND FOSTER

Buckhannon, W. Va.

Alpha Gamma Phi, President, '28; Benzene Ring; Inter-Fraternity Council; Student Council, '26, President, '28; Pharos Board of Control; Murmurmontis Business Manager, '29; Intra-Mural Board, President, '27; Class Vice-President, '25; President, '27; Debate, '27; Pi Kappa Delta; Delegate to National Student Federation of America, '29.

"A heart to concieve, an understanding to direct, and a hand to execute"

Bill is a typical Wesleyan man. He is one who performs his duty whenever called upon, and able to carry responsibility and put something worth while across. He is always prepared. A friendly greeting, a smile for fellow Wesleyan students and as President of the Student Representative Council has proven himself exceedingly loyal.

ALICE FERGUSON

Buckhannon, W. Va.

Kappa Phi Omega; Y. W. C. A.

"It's nice to be nice, when you're naturally nice."

Are you looking for a sincere student and an energetic leader? Dependability is a factor not to be overlooked in Alice's make-up. You may be quiet, but when you leave Wesleyan, she will miss you. The most of success to you in anything you undertake!

ANDREW WOOFTER

Weston, W. Va.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Benzene Ring.

"What shall I do to forever be known and make the ages come to be my own?"

"Ambition" is a quiet person, who never says much, except in class, when called upon, for he always has his lessons, yet he has that winning smile, which always beams forth at the right time. If it is true that "Still waters run deep" we know that Andy will have great success in his life's work. We wish him luck in all his undertakings.

MARGUERITE SINGLETON

Mannington, W. Va.

Sigma Delta Chi; Y. W. C. A.; Excelsior Literary; Glee Club, '25-'28; Inter-Fraternity Council; Class Editor of Murmurmontis, '29.

"'Tis well to have a theory and sit in the center of it."

"Marg", we certainly will miss you when you leave our campus, and may your whole life be as companionable and happy as your college days. A charming acquaintance and a dear friend makes "Marg" a girl among girls and makes for her a definite place.

MARY MORRISON

SUTTON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi; Haught Club, Y W. C. A.; Excelsior; Pharos Staff; Representative to Eaglesmere.

"A jolly unselfish personality is the greatest gift of all."

No matter what's going on, Mary is always around and ready for a good time. Those who don't know her have missed something worth while, for Mary is a true friend.

When I think of Wesleyan I'll always remember you - Happiness for you always Mary Dorrison -

P.S. I must forget to thank you for helping (?) write that old Eng. letter — & got my job!!!?

JAMES LOWTHER

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Kappa Lambda Sigma; Pi Kappa Delta; Chresto-Excelsior; Choir; Y. M. C. A.

"As an actor, confessed without rival to shine."

He is best known here as an actor, but his active mind finds other outlets—he is a student with a scholar's passions for learning and a special gift for English. Wherever you go, Jimmie, we hope you will make as big a mark in the world as you have here at Wesleyan.

I receive your letter with pleasure & true will. Success in your life is my wish. Everything is ready.

EVA SWISHER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi; Wesleyan Players; Y W. C. A.; Benzene Ring; Pharos, '26-'29; Glee Club; Intra Mural Board, Secretary.

"Long may we search before we find a heart so gentle and so kind."

"Pete's" winning personality and a friendly smile has won for her many friends. One cannot imagine what it would be like to come to Wesleyan and not see "Pete" among those roaming the halls. Here's wishing you the utmost success in your work.

EDWARD ROBERTS

Mt. Hope, W. Va.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Commerce President; Pharos Staff; Murmurmont s Staff.

"Good humor is the clear, blue sky of the soul, the bright weather of the heart."

Who can forget Ed, and his brilliant remarks? No matter what is going on, Ed is always present, and very much wide awake! There is scarcely any need of our saying how much you will be missed– for you surely have made your mark in Wesleyan and she wishes you the best of luck and success.

ELIZABETH McGLOTHIN

Marietta, Ohio

Tallagewe; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '26; Pharos Staff, '25-'27; House President, '28; Benzene Ring; Executive Board, '29; Haught Club; Chemistry Assistant, '27-'29.

"Heart to conceive, understanding to direct, and hand to execute."

One of the young ladies who has compelled our respect and admiration throughout her work, by her enviable class records and her personality.

J. BRODA RADER

Hominy Falls, W. Va.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Football, '25-'28; Intra-Mural Basketball; Chresto-Excelsior.

"Of their own merits, modest men are dumb."

Yes, this is the kind of fellow who keeps the old world moving along smoothly and surely. Steady, dependable, genius, and loyal, it is hard to find another who could meet rebuffs in the manner that Broda did. Playing football four years, and working hard all the time is enough to show what any man is made of. We have no fear for his future. He will make it himself.

PAUL B. LOSH

WESTON, W. VA.

Philosophical Club; Commerce Club; Class Basketball; Y. M. C. A.

"Every age has its pleasure, its style of wit, and its own ways."

Why worry? The world wasn't made in a day, neither did Einstein complete all of his great works in that length of time. Take life as it comes and if there must be grief let someone else harbor it. Get all the fun out of life that you can or some other person will get it. So says Paul as he goes about his daily work with a high head and a happy countenance. We hope that he will continue to banish morbidness in the world which he will enter on leaving Wesleyan.

THELMA WEST

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chresto-Excelsior; Glee Club; Y. W. C. A.; Philosophical Club.

"Music, that gentler on the spirit lies,
Than tired eyelids upon tired eyes."

Thelma will always be remembered on Wesleyan's campus for her musical ability. Although a quiet and unobtrusive person, her thoughts were expressed through her violin.

ROBERT GOODWIN

RIPLEY, W. VA

Alpha Gamma Phi; Editor of Pharos, '29; Pan-Hellenic Council; Glee Club, '27-'29; Pi Kappa Delta; Intra-Mural Basketball, Class Manager; Pharos Staff, '27, '28; Debate, '27-'29; Wesleyan Players; Cheerleader, '27-'29; Y. M. C. A.

"Life is what we make it, and there is no use being serious about it."

To this man things seem to come easy. He never seems to worry. Some believe he lives by that old proverb which says, "Life's no better if we worry, life's no longer if we hurry." Nothing drags when Bob is around, and his friendly greetings make him one among a host of friends.

CLYDE BACKUS

GAD, W. VA.

Y. M. C. A.; Chresto-Excelsior; Philosophical Club; Student Pastor.

"I would rather be beaten in doing right than to succeed in doing wrong."

The greatest virtue ever found was sincerity, and this student of the ministry has it in abundance. Never faltering, he followed the right as it was given him to see the right, and was always true to the purpose on hand. The world is waiting for you, Clyde, and when it has found out your dependability you may be sure that it will recognize it. We wish you a hearty success in the life work that you have chosen, and hope that the future will always remain bright.

MAXINE THACKER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Varsity Basketball, '26; Class Basketball, Manager, '28.

"Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all"

It is not hard to tell what sort of work comes from this person with the clear brain; although we do not hear or see much of Maxine, I assure you that she would be missed greatly if one felt they had not Maxine to call upon in a time of need.

D. D. BARTLETT

BELINGTON, W. VA.

Y. M. C. A.; Choir; Chresto-Excelsior.

"That load becomes light which is cheerfully borne."

Mr. Bartlett came to us last fall, but we have known him long enough to appreciate him as a hard worker, a good student and a congenial associate. You have our best wishes, Dossie, and we are confident you will be an asset to Wesleyan in the future.

JOHN C. MOTT

DAVIS, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Wesleyan Players; Manager Varsity Basketball, '29; Class Basketball, '26-'29; West Virginia Collegiate Association, Secretary, Treasurer; Pharos Staff, '27; Y. M. C. A.; Philosophical Club; Benzene Ring; Honor Student.

"Love is the life of man"

John has attained a role of scholarship since his first appearance on Wesleyan's campus, and while he seems not to have to study as much as some of the rest of us, he places his average in one of the topmost notches. He is a genial companion with a good bit of humor, and the characteristics of a scholar and gentleman.

RUTH CUNNINGHAM

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Pharos Staff, '26-'29; Kappa Phi Omega, Social Chairman, '27; Treasurer, '28; Y. W. C. A., Cabinet, '27-'29; Intra-Mural Board, '27; Sophomore Class Secretary; Haught Club, President, '28.

"Cheerful people live longer in our memories."

Willing to work, capable, and energetic, we can always depend on Ruth. She is a fine, true type of girlhood and one of the conscientious Seniors. Not only is she game at everything, but good at anything—a happy, consistent friend.

PHARES REEDER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Pi Kappa Delta; Debate, '28, '29; Philosophical Club; Wesleyan Players.

"If I can't find a way, I'll make one."

Gentlemen, let us have all things in law and order. Thus speaks this young man of legal intentions, and we heed when we hear. A brilliant speaker, thinker, actor and student, we know that the future is assured for you. When you have achieved a hold in the heart of public estimation, we ask that you remember all of your old friends of Wesleyan, and come back to us with the laurels that you have won. Wesleyan is proud of this man.

CLAY PUGH

GLEN, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Pharos Staff; Murmurmontis Staff; Kappa Lambda Sigma; Varsity Football, '26-'29; Class Basketball, '26.

"A gentleman to the fingertips."

Gentleness combined with strength. That is the essence of a gentleman, and in Clay we have this and much more. Possessed with a superb physical strength, he won his way into all our hearts with kindness. He held the secret of friendship which was, love the world first and then it will love you. We wish you a happy and a profitable life, and hope that your Alma Mater will always retain a hold on your affections.

JANE CHENOWETH

WESTON, W. VA.

"Thy soul was like a star and dwelt apart."

We are sorry, Mrs. Chenoweth, that you have not been with us for any of the previous three years, but it has not taken us long to realize your real worth. Wesleyan will be looking for the activities of one of her brilliant students, and knows she will not be disappointed.

ROY NUTTER

AKRON, OHIO

Sigma Eta Delta; Varsity Football, '25-'28; Class Basketball, '28; Chrestomathean.

"The man that loves and laughs must sure do well."

Roy is one who doesn't let his studies interfere with his college life, yet he always comes through with some marks to be proud of. His cheerful disposition, and smiling countenance will be missed in Wesleyan's Halls, as will his untiring work on the athletic field. With all his good qualities, the best of which is his big heartedness, we know he will make a success of life.

Roy Nutter

WILLARD PHILLIPS

SISTERSVILLE, W. VA.

Forensic Association; Benzene Ring; Student Campaign.

"Never let your studies interfere with other activities."

Just a good-natured fellow who goes about the campus speaking to everyone, and, too, we will remember Willard in connection with "Ye Bob Cat". Long may it live!

LILLIE BRAKE

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"An intellect of highest worth."

To say more than this, "she's there with the goods", would detract more than add to Mrs. Brake's abilities. She is ever on the job, and can always answer whenever a question is asked. She just "knows her stuff", that's all.

JOE MARTIN

ST. MARYS, W. VA.

Alpha Tau Omega.

"Great thoughts come from the heart."

Although Joe has been with us only two years, those two years have been long enough for us to find out and fully realize that he is a student of high standing and ability. We wish he had come to us sooner.

HARRY HYMES

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Glee Club; Y. M. C. A; Sigma Eta Delta; Philosophical Club.

"By time and toil we sever what strength and rage could never."

Is there anybody who has never seen Harry smile? We think they will be hard to find. Harry has a practical knowledge of business along with his school work. We know that no matter what ups and downs Harry may have, he will come smiling through.

ESTHER MURRAY

GRAFTON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega, Vice-President, '29, Treasurer, '28; Excelsior; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '29; Executive Board, '27; Pan-Hellenic, '29.

"Never miss a joy in a world of trouble."

Want a good time? Ask Esther to join you and you will not be lacking in fun. To say that Esther is friendly and jolly, yet not lacking in sound judgment, is saying only a part of the many things which would describe her. But one must really know her to realize her true worth.

What would I do, dear, without you
dear Esther
Blanken Friend

LOUIS KOLOPUS

ELYRIA, OHIO

Sigma Eta Delta, President, '27-'29; Kappa Lambda Sigma, Vice President; Student Government, '28; Varsity Football, '25-'28; Varsity Club; Pan-Hellenic, '27; Freshman Initiation Board, '28; Y. M. C. A.

"A ladies' man, now and forever more."

An athlete, scholar, and gentleman. These three combine to make "Louie's" personality what it is, and where fun is concerned, well, whenever you hear Louie's hearty laugh, you'll know the joke is a good one.

HAYWARD HAMRICK

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau, President; Business Manager, Murmurmontis; Varsity Basketball, '26-'29; Debate, '28, '29; Pi Kappa Delta, President; Class President, '26, '27; Wesleyan Players; Y. M. C. A.

"With his quiet yet determined force, he travels onward on his way."

There are several members of our Senior class who seem as much at home on the stage as elsewhere and Hick is one of those. For Wesleyan to produce a play without Hick's name on the cast would seem quite unnatural. Even with all this, Hick is a student, and always attends to his duties and is never worried—for nothing worries the man who is always ready.

ROSALIE HOLLIDA

MARTINSBURG, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi, President; Y. W. C. A Cabinet; Wesleyan Players; Inter-Fraternity Council; Freshman Initiation Board.

"Just true blue all thru!"

Plans for a sociable event are quite incomplete unless Rosalie's thoughts and suggestions were somewhere in evidence. She has a host of friends and admirers, won by her ready wit and pleasing personality, and possesses those characteristics which make you frankly like her. She is not only game at everything but good at anything. Here's success to you, Rosalie, in anything you may undertake.

IRA McDOWELL

DAVIS, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Y. M. C. A., Treasurer, '26; Secretary, '27; President, '29; Athletic Editor of Pharos, '27; Assistant Football Manager, '27; Class Basketball, '26-'29; Tennis, '27-'29; Benzene Ring; Kappa Lambda Sigma; Student Representative of Athletic Board of Control; Philosophical Club.

"True as a needle to the pole or as the dial to the sun."

A jolly, companionable friend—but with all the good times comes the time to be serious. "Red" is a worthy fellow—good luck and much success and keep Wesleyan proud to have you.

LEMUEL COOKMAN

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta.

"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the wisest men."

In order to appreciate "Lem" to the fullest extent, one must know him—and once you know him he is never forgotten, for there's no one else like him. He's just one to himself. Jolly, good-natured, and always saying something wise.

GERTRUDE YOUNG

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.

"Silence is better than empty chatter."

Wesleyan has known her graciousness of personality, and has appreciated it and her fun-loving disposition. She has endeared herself to her many Wesleyan friends.

OMER YOUNG

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Varsity Football; Varsity Basketball; Benzene Ring; Y. M. C. A.

"And when a lady's in the case,
You know all other things give place."

An athlete, a scholar, a lover, and a gentleman are just a few of the many good things that we might say about Omer. And coupled with all of these, he had a knack for wholesome fun. A center on the football team of his Alma Mater for four years, we know that he will continue to be one of the centers in the game of life. Wesleyan is proud of you and wishes many fine things for you.

GEORGE ROGERS

CAMDEN, W. VA.

"Where duty calleth he is always found."

George is not one of those men who are very well-known about school—never hear much about him—but that does not say he hasn't abilities. He is studying for the ministry and we are sure he will make good because he is well fitted for the work.

SUELLA HARPER

MOOREFIELD, W. VA.

Y. W. C. A.; Executive Board, '29.

"Virtue is bold, and goodness never fearful."

Although Suella has not been with us for the entire four years, she has not lost a moment in making up for lost time. She is very quiet, but exceedingly studious, and when you want a question answered, ask Suella, and it will more than likely be correct.

WILBUR E. PLANTS

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Pi Kappa Delta, Treasurer, '29; Philosophical Club; Chresto-Excelsior, President, '28; Y. M. C. A., Vice-President, '29; Manager Lyceum Course, '29.

"I profess not talking—only this—let each man do his best."

Need some one to do something that just has to be done? There's Mr. Plants, who, if he promises to do a thing, will go to the limit to see that it is done. One of the most dependable men on our campus. We will certainly miss him when he leaves us in June.

I don't know why someone has not said "you can't have a good woman down". Your luck is sure to take you upward. Success to you. Remember bike picnic, Chresto-Ex and now, W.E.!

LAWRENCE BROOKE

LUMBERPORT, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Pi Kappa Delta; Varsity Basketball, '27, '28; Intra-Mural Basketball, '26, Manager, '29.

"Measures, not men, have always been my mark."

Truly we can say that "Brooke" is one of the brainiest and most level-headed men on our campus. Call on him to solve a deep problem—a little time, and you have the answer. He surely has made a mark here and we feel certain that he will make a greater one in the work awaiting him in the outside world.

DOROTHY WITHERS

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega, President; Mur-murmontis Staff; Pharos Staff, '26, '27; Pan-Hellenic Council; Y. W. C. A.

"A lady, whose bright eyes rain influence."

What more could express delight, praise and honor to such a dependable and likeable girl? We must not forget, either, Dorothy's talent for æsthetic dancing, and the place she has won for herself along such lines. In "Dot" we find, at all times, qualities which make true friendship.

J. B. BULLINGTON

CHARLESTON, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Football, Captain, '28; Varsity Club, Vice-President; Intra-Mural Basketball, '29; Varsity Football, '25-'28.

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for who can tell what the morrow may bring."

That steadfast eye and determined look has played a great part in holding the line for Wesleyan in the last four years. Now, since you are going to try your hand at holding the line in life's great game, we hope that you will be as successful as you have been with your Alma Mater. May good fortune attend you and happiness be your store.

May many happy days follow full in the coming year
'26 1930.
Bruce.

EDWARD SEIBERT

DAYTON, OHIO

Chi Alpha Tau; Assistant Football Coach.

"Live, love and be happy. That is my motto."

Eddie has been with us only a short time, but nevertheless his hearty laugh, and ready smile have earned for him a place in the hearts of many students. Let us hope you are always as joyful and happy as you are now.

LORETTA JONES

MT. HOPE, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha; President, '29; Secretary, '27; Pan-Hellenic, Vice-President, '29; Benzene Ring; Y. W. C. A.; Executive Board, '26.

"One with a kind and generour heart."

Quiet, unassuming and without pretense, Loretta has won her way into the hearts of her fellow students. Only those who know her can realize her true worth—but mark you—she will make her mark in the world. Best of success to you, Loretta.

HAROLD McCLUNG

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta, Vice-President, '29; Football, '25-'28; Basketball, '26-'29; President Varsity Club, '28, '29; Basketball Captain, '28.

"Play the game, boys, but play it fair."

Wesleyan students will certainly miss you when you're gone, "Mickey", but you'll always be remembered as an athlete. Mickey has made a real place in Wesleyan's history. I don't worry much, but I'm always on the spot.

WAYNE REGER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chresto-Excelsior; Band; Orchestra; Y. M. C. A.

"Music is the poetry of the air."

The world needs more music and this young man is going to supply a part of all that is needed. A leader in music in his Alma Mater, we know that he will continue to be one. The universe is waiting for those who are capable and in Wayne it will find one who can be depended upon for something worthwhile. We hope that you will find life pleasant and wish for all kinds of success.

ELIZABETH McWHORTER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi; Y. W. C. A.; Intra-Mural Athletic Board.

"Happy thou are, as if every day
Thou has picked up a horse-shoe."

"Lou" is one of the town girls who busies herself with other things, and does not take a great part in college activities. Nevertheless, "Lou" is quite well-known, both for her kindness and her willingness to do her share of the work.

KENNETH SHAVER

MONONGAHELA, PA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Y. M. C. A.; Student Volunteer Organization, President; Biology Instructor; Chresto-Excelsior.

"Measures, not man, have always been my mark."

"Come to my office and I will cure you", thus says this young Doctor of the future in imagination as he goes about studying bugs and Chemistry. We know that he means all that he says, however, because he has been with us for a long time and has shown that he carries out his plans and purposes. Have some good tasting medicine prepared for us, Ken, when we drop in or give you a professional call, and we will come back for more. Wesleyan depends on you and wishes you manifold success.

WALTER MAGERS

MOUNDSVILLE, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau

"It is good to lengthen to the last a sunny mood."

We can best characterize Walter with quiet thoughtfulness, cheerful disposition, hard work, and humor. He always sees the better side of things. We hope we may always be near enough to enjoy your smile.

MARGARET SHARFENEKER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Pi Delta

"A friend that neither shirked nor wavered"

Quiet, unassuming, Margaret does not always make her presence known, but she is always on the job. Give her something to do—well, all we can say is that the result will be close to par. We know she will make a success in her after college life.

JAKE HYER

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta

"His fingers shame the ivory keys
They dance so light along."

What will remind you more of school and good times than the memories of Jake at the piano. What will we do when we know Jake isn't around, especially at these meetings. We will feel lost.

RALPH F. WILSON

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Alpha Gamma Phi; Chresto-Excelsior; Class Basketball; Pharos Business Manager.

"His future is aglow with possibilities."

Courtesy, sincerity, promptness and persistence are the dominating forces in Ralph's character. When we realize that he meets every situation with a desire, and determination to succeed, it is not hard to believe that Ralph will be a great success.

HAZEL REPPERT

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega; Haught Club, Treasurer, '27-'28; Student Council, Treasurer, '28; Class Secretary, '27; Class Treasurer, 28; Pharos Staff, '27-'29; Murmurmontis Associate Editor, '28; Inter-Fraternity Council.

"Romances are not in books, they are in real life."

Good old happy-go-lucky "Red"! Can we ever forget her—because of her friendly smile, cheerful ways she is well-known on the campus. Too, we must not forget her scholastic attainments, for quite often her grades are the despair of others less fortunate! Nevertheless, you can always count on "Red" for a good time, and we certainly will miss you!

FARLAND ARNOLD

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Tennis Team; Debate; Chresto-Excelsior; Philosophical Club, Treasurer; Benzene Ring; Intra-Mural Basketball; Wesleyan Choir; Orchestra; Y. M. C. A., Secretary.

"It well becomes a young man to be modest."

Always smiling, bright and jovial, with remarkable talents in all lines of endeavor is Farland. One never meets him without feeling that the world is made happier by that meeting. Spread your smiles and sunshine wherever you go because it is badly needed. We know you will succeed, and we know success is due you. Wishes for content and happiness is expressed by your Alma Mater.

MAYFORD CAMP

RAVENSWOOD, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Wesleyan Players.

"Character is a perfectly educated will."

One of Wesleyan's most popular young men. Exceptionally good in plays, he has made his place of honor in the Wesleyan Players. We feel confident that "Duck" will continue to make good after he leaves Wesleyan.

ARCHIE BOWYER

LOUISVILLE, KY

Kappa Lambda Sigma; Y. M. C. A.; Benzene Ring.

"Only deeds give strength to life,
Only moderation gives it charm."

Archie has been with us for quite a while and we all know him as a hard worker and serious student. He has always returned to our halls and, at last, has gained the prize. Good luck, Archie.

RICHARD YOUNG

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Varsity Basketball, '28-'29.

"His one weakness is a brunette woman."

Dick has been playing mighty good basketball and it seems as though he has been trying to rival for Mickey's place. Basketball isn't the only thing Dick's good at either, for he is good at his studies, too. Good luck in the future.

HELEN UPTON

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

"Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind."

Helen will be remembered by faculty and student body alike, as an ardent worker. You haven't been here long, but we all realize your worth and know your untiring efforts will be rewarded.

RUSSEL L. WESTFALL

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"Silence is more eloquent than words."

How can we better characterize Russell than to say he was one who diligently pursues his daily tasks cheerfully? We expect a great deal from you, Russell, and we know we won't be disappointed.

Laura dear,

Athletics—Foreword

In the hustle and bustle of life as the world labors at its work and study, there comes the time for recreation, and so it is in the land of Wesleyan.

Versatility is the nectar of a student's life. Without it a student is dull; with it life is wonderful. And so Wesleyan in her home among the mountains trains men for the battles to come. And it is to these men that we dedicate this section of the Murmurmontis; to the Athlete of West Virginia Wesleyan College; the bearers of the Orange and Black; to that brave ruler of the mountain—the Bobcat.

Football

As one looked through the list of candidates for the 1928 football team, he missed many of the old stars of 1927, missed the names of men who had written their deeds in the annals of Wesleyan Athletics.

Then—at the same time he found the names of some of the old veterans and some new candidates, and it is about these men that the tales of woe and triumph are to be related. Now read them and be proud, be proud of old West Virginia Wesleyan.

FAIRMONT NORMAL

Wesleyan opens her season in glorious fashion and Fairmont goes home sorely disappointed. And why not? The Bobcats simply administered a 43-0 defeat to the teachers, and sent them home to nurse their ills. Wesleyan from the looks of things is going to do something.

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

West Virginia University smashed its way to a 12-to-0 victory over West Virginia Wesleyan at the Mountaineer field on September the 29th.

A crowd of 6,500 braved a cold, drizzling rain to watch the struggle which was marked by numerous fumbles and erratic playing. But it was a fight, a fight that one usually witnesses at that traditional game and Wesleyan did her share.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

When Wesleyan lost to New York University, they lost to one of the best teams in the country. And again Wesleyan aroused her "Never say die" spirit and scored!! Yes, scored on New York University, the conquerors of Carnegie Tech. The little fighting, snarling Bob Cat team was indeed proud of the 26-to-7 score.

CONCORD STATE COLLEGE

We won!! The sting of defeat could not last, and the Wesleyan Bob Cat stalked forth "licking his chops". A mangled Mountain Lion of Concord State College lay back in the somewhere, nursing the wounds of its 18-0 defeat.

It was a maddened Bob Cat seeking revenge that downed the game Mountain Lion of Concord Normal. A typical mountaineer fray.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY

Wesleyan lost to Georgetown, 34-7, in one of the cleverest over head attacks ever witnessed. The boys of the Capitol City used the aerial methods for numerous gains. But again the Bobcat snarls, and with the grim determination of her species scored.

WAYNESBURG COLLEGE

Then came Waynesburg, boasting one of the best teams in history. But it could not compete with the sly, cunning resourcefulness of the Wesleyan Bobcat. It was evident that the sting of the Yellow Jacket was not as bad as the bite of the Bobcat, and so it was that the Wesleyan Bobcats in one of the biggest surprises of the year defeated the Yellow Jackets, 34-0.

NAVY

Wesleyan suffering the loss of four regulars went into the Navy fray quite the underdog. Then—— Wesleyan held them, held them valiantly until the third quarter. But the Navy rallied and sailed to a 37-0 victory.

But during the first two quarters it appeared as anybody's game and at times the Bobcats threatened to sink the ship. But——

SALEM COLLEGE

Now comes the day that many of us have been looking forward to. And, indeed, it was a day to look forward to. The Bobcats attacked, and at last rolled the Salem College Tigers in the mud, to go howling on to a 12-0 victory. The dashing rain could not subdue the spirits of the scrappy Bobcats, and again the superiority over the Tigers was proved on the harred field.

DAVIS AND ELKINS

The day dawned bright and clear. An ideal day, but the sun set among the clouds, at least for the Wesleyan rooters, as the Scarlet Hurricanes of D. & E. downed the Bobcats, 14-7.

The Annual Homecoming Game; high hopes, then—they were blasted, but not disappointed, for it was a real team that was defeated; a team that fought to the last whistle; a team that was worthy of the Orange and Black.

ST. XAVIER

Hooray!! How sweet is revenge when duly tasted. The dashing Musketeers of St. Xavier with their quivering swords and waving plumes, retreated and at last surrendered, giving the Bobcats a 19-7 victory. Playing football as only a determined Wesleyan team can play it, using the right play at the right time, they outgeneraled and outfought the Irish, which was, indeed, a hard and noteworthy thing to do.

MARSHALL

One of the biggest surprises in state intercollegiate gridiron circles was furnished when the Wesleyan Bobcat eleven went down to a 13-7 defeat at the hands of the Big Green of Marshall College.

Repeated fumbles and the obstructed kicking of the wet soggy ball was a big factor in the surprise defeat. But Wesleyan merely takes off her hat and bows and promises Marshall a "run for her money" next year.

As Viewed by a Mountaineer

"Yup! it's a great game. Full o' ginger n' everythin', n' that there Wesleyan team knowed ho' 't play ut, too. Yuh want t' know all 'bout it do yuh? Wal, here goes.

Las' winter when I usta work down at Buckhannon, the boys arg'ed me t' go t' one of them there basketball games. This here Wesleyan team wuz a playin' Marshall. We went up t' the "jim" and went in Course we had t' pay t' git in. This "jim" wuz the big buildin' whar they played. One big room. Lota' lights and noise. Yeh, never heerd sech yellin' since my time. One feller standin' out front wavin' 'is arms n' the rest a yellin' at 'im. Peepul set round the side. The floor was shiny and slick as a whistle. Agin we got set down, some young fellers come runnin' on the floor and started throwin' at a hoop fastened on a board. Talk 'bout runnin' n' jumpin'! Never saw sech a bunch of fellers in my life. Didn't have much on,—'spose they cud jump better 'thout 'em. Then this here Wesleyan team come up and throwed at a hoop at 'tother end of the floor. They had on black uniforms. They wusn't dressed like that there Marshall team But they looked like a bunch of Dutchmen in long baggy pants. Then a man walked out in the ring in th' center of the floor and blu a whistle. The Marshall team got in a little ring an' talked secretly. Wesleyan begun t' take off one of the uniforms. Underneath the black they had on a yaller un in silk. Looked purty snappy. They shuck hands; the refuree—they called him—throwed th' ball up 'tween two men standin' in the little circle. Then th' started throwin' the ball, n' runnin' and jumpin' all over the floor. N' then they let a feller shoot one 'thout no one abotherin' n' Wesleyan v by several points too.

I went t' several other games, Wesleyan won part of 'em and lost part of 'em. But that's the way it went, anyhow.

Tennis Team, 1928

With the passing of the last snow late in March and the coming of April with its soft breezes, warm sunshine, and spring weather the Wesleyan racqueteers were called forth for early practice. Faced with the realization that a hard schedule was before them—in fact, one of the stiffest schedules the defenders of the Orange and Black had ever been called to face—the squad soon rounded into condition.

Only three letter-men were left from the champion team of 1927. They were: "Dink" Westfall, Fred Haught, and "Gus" Ritzinger. However, with the opening of the first match, "Red" McDowell and Ramus Holtz had qualified for varsity berths.

The season's schedule presented fifteen matches; six at home and nine away. The matches with Duquesne, Marietta, and the Clarksburg Tennis Club were called on account of rain, but not before the Bobcats had taken the lead in the arguments against Duquesne, and Marietta. In the twelve matches played, Wesleyan made a very creditable showing; winning seven and losing five. Two matches were won from each Salem and Broaddus, and one from Davis-Elkins, Bethany and the Alumni. Matches were lost to Geneva, Davis-Elkins, Washington-Jefferson, and Carnegie Tech.

The outstanding feature of the season was the excellent playing of Fred Haught. Playing his fourth year of varsity tennis, Fred gave his best to come through with a clean slate,—winning all of his matches.

The season's letter-men were: Captain "Dink" Westfall, Fred Haught, "Gus" Ritzinger, "Red" McDowell, and Ramus Holtz.

Seniors—Class-A Champions

Juniors—Class-B Champions

Intra-Mural Athletic

Intra-Mural Athletics at Wesleyan this year has been more successful than any other year since its origin. With Arthur Simons, who is at the head of all Intra-Mural Athletics at Wesleyan, forming a program for men; and Miss Nason doing the same for women, the rivalry has been closer this year than ever before, and the enthusiasm far greater than in previous years.

The Fall program was made up of campus football, golf, tennis, for men; and hockey in addition to golf and tennis for women. The program was carried out and for the first time our fall sports program was completed.

Then with winter came the inside sports, which were basketball, handball, and volleyball. Two Intra-Mural basketball leagues for men were formed, and these proved to be highly successful. In the A league, the Seniors won, and in the B league the Juniors won. A handball tournament was run off, and the girls played their interclass basketball with all the class rivalry that the men showed.

The Spring brought with it the outdoor sports again. Golf and tennis proved the most popular, with baseball and track closely following. At recognition day the winners of the basketball tournament along with the champions in all other Intra-Mural sports were duly recognized. And with the closing of College, Wesleyan finished the most successful year of intra-mural activities that has ever been held. Much credit goes to Mr. Simons, who spent so much time in arranging this schedule for the Intra-Mural sports; and to Miss Nason for her unceasing efforts to make women's intra-mural competition a possibility.

The Wesleyan Pharos

VOLUME XXXVII NO 25 WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE, BUCKHANNON, W. VA. WEDNESDAY MARCH 6 1929

Hamrick and Wilson Head Business Staff.

The past year has been the most successful financially of any year in the history of the Pharos.

The political campaign and the increased amount of both local and foreign advertising was a great boon to the financial status of the publication.

Chairman of Board, Prof. Raw, Will Be Missed.

Miss Ruth M. Raw will be greatly missed as head of the Board of Control. We wish her the best of success and bid her goodbye.

The Name Pharos

The Pharos was named in honor of a lighthouse located on the Isle of Pharos, which for centuries rendered service to the seafarers of that domain. It is hoped that the Pharos may do that same thing for Wesleyan. She has done nobly so far. She began with the century, and has spread influence since that time.

Next Year's Staff Elected

Lyle Hart, Editor.
Fred Roberts, Bus. Mgr.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Control, Lyle B. Hart was selected as Editor, and Fred Roberts, Business Manager, of the Pharos for the coming year. Hart served as Managing Editor before his election. Roberts has worked himself up from the bottom and knows every part of the financial side of the paper. The outgoing staff wishes them every success.

Robert Goodwin Helmsman for Year.

The Pharos has had a very successful year under the management of Robert Goodwin.

The make-up of the paper has been carefully worked out each week, and should be of value in the contest for the rating of collegiate publications in West Virginia.

Pharos Rates Second in State Contest.

At the meeting of the Inter-Collegiate Press conference, Wesleyan was awarded second only to the Marshall Parthenon.

Pharos Has 1,700 Circulation.

The circulation of the Pharos now includes the Wesleyan student body, its alumni, exchanges, and complimentary high school subscriptions.

Does the Pharos Express Student Opinion?

The readers of the Pharos are composed of students, alumni, including business men, educators, ministers, and civic leaders throughout W. Va., the faculty, the parents of the student body, and our friends in town. Therefore, the Pharos must consider what is printed as student opinion.

GOVERNMENT

Student Representative Council

Since its organization in 1922-23, the Student Representative Council has been the mouthpiece of the Student Body, and its aim has been to cooperate with the faculty in all matters pertaining to Student affairs. The Student Council has charge of Freshman initiation, and through its efforts the Freshman is made better acquainted with Wesleyan.

Each year the council sees that all students, who have taken part in extra-curricular affairs, receive due honor through the point system. The Student Council publishes a Wesleyan Hand Book annually, which is one of great service to newcomers, as well as to outsiders, who wish to know more about the college and its activities.

During the past year, a committee from the Student Council in cooperation with the President and Secretary of each class, decided to keep the same standard ring that had been used by the college for the past four years. Also during the past year, the Council sent its President as a delegate to the National Student Council Congress at St. Louis from which the Council received much information concerning the work of the Student Council in various colleges throughout the country.

The Student Council seems to be coming into closer relationship with the faculty, and may it, in years to come, with the aid of the student body, do even greater and better work than in the past, and thus carry out the ideals and principles which Wesleyan stands for.

Student Government

Student Government in Agnes Howard Hall is based on the Honor System. The system is very much of a success because all girls co-operate, and in this way it is very effective. It is hoped that it will ever mean as much to Wesleyan girls in the future as it has in the past.

DRAMATICS

Wesleyan Players

In 1922, twelve members of the cast of "The Piper" organized the Wesleyan Players. Since that time the organization has steadily grown, and much worth-while work has been done. Under the direction of Professor Staats, various plays have been successfully presented.

It is the purpose of the club to promote dramatics at Wesleyan.

The requirements for membership are: Recommendation by the director; a creditable performance in two plays under the direction of a player; duty of stage director, or when a student has written a one-act play which has been performed under the direction of a player.

LITERARY

Chresto-Excelsior Literary Society

For two years the Chrestomathean and Excelsior Literary Societies have been united into one. Due to the untiring efforts of the Presidents and cabinets as well as the faithfulness of the members, the society has been climbing steadily higher in its standards as well as its accomplishments.

Its regularly held meetings have been unusually successful. Besides these the society has had two social functions during the year, both of which were well-attended.

The Chresto-Excelsior Literary Society sponsored the Wesleyan Oratorical contest, of which James Lowther was the winner.

Y. M. C. A.

Wesleyan, with no small amount of pride, can say that her Y. M. C. A. is one of the most active associations of the state. This year the programs have been dealing with subjects of vital interest to the college man and his campus.

Wesleyan was well represented at the State Collegiate Religious Educational Conference, the West Virginia University Invitation Conference, and the Annual State Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. Spring Conference.

With the co-operation of the Y. W. C. A., we were able to accomplish many uplifting enterprises that were of untold value to the college.

The evangelistic meetings, conducted by Dr. Scott of Parkersburg, were entertaining as well as greatly inspirational. The association wishes to have Dr. Scott in Wesleyan again in the near future.

The deputation program, which was started a few years ago, was again taken up and proved to be a success in many ways.

The lyceum course, following the slogan, "Fewer and better numbers," was well taken and praised by all who attended.

The course consisted of four high class numbers as follows:

Smith-Spring-Holmes Orchestral Quintet; The Family Upstairs, a clever comedy; Zellner, "Protean character"; Count Von Luckner, the famous German lecturer.

Y. W. C. A.

The Young Women's Christian Association supplies, in a large measure, the spiritual side of the girl's life while at Wesleyan. It affords an opportunity for all the girls to gather once a week and discuss topics of interest to all. These meetings develop higher spiritual ideals and a better and more lasting fellowship among the girls on the campus.

The year has been a prosperous and helpful one. The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. joined in groups for doing Deputation work in some of the student charges near Buckhannon. Delegates were sent to different conferences and the driive for the Summer Conference at Eaglesmere has been successful. The organization has aided their sister College, Hwa-Nan College, Foochow, China, financially. It is the desire of every member to promote interest in the association and make it just as successful in the future.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Chi Kappa Alpha

The Chi Kappa Alpha Sorority, which was organized late in 1925, was officially recognized as a sorority in March, 1926.

As faculty advisor, Miss Lois McCloskey has been very efficient in helping the group in all its undertakings and strivings.

Since the fall of 1927, the Chi Kappas have made their home on the corner of College Avenue and Florida Street.

This year promises to be the most successful in the history of the organization, and above all the sorority hopes to live up to its primary aim, that of being a democratic, social organization, upholding the ideals of Wesleyan College.

The Sigma Delta Chi Sorority claims the honor of being the oldest sorority on Wesleyan's campus, having been organized in 1921 by a small group of Wesleyan girls. Although this group was not officially recognized as a sorority, it functioned as such until February, 1926, when it was recognized as a local sorority.

Sigma Delta Chi is very fortunate and proud to have Miss Alice Nason as advisor, in which capacity she has served for the last three years.

The sorority residence is located at 50 College Avenue.

Many social affairs were given by the sorority which culminated in an elaborate Spring Formal.

The Sigma Delta Chi Sorority aims toward a democratic social organization upholding the ideals of Wesleyan College. The sorority experienced a very successful "rushing season."

Tallagewe Association

The Wesleyan chapter of the National Tallagewe Association first functioned as a club, but in May, 1927, it was formally taken into the National Tallagewe Association. Tallagewe claims the honor of being the first national organization on the campus.

The local chapter plans to send a delegation to the National Convention in New York City next August.

This has been a successful year for the organization.

Professor Clara Fishpaugh has been a most helpful and efficient faculty advisor.

Tallagewe fosters a democratic and altruistic spirit among all college women.

Alpha Gama Phi

Thus endeth another year in the history of Alpha Gamma Phi. We have had quite a prosperous year, even though some of our Brethren have wandered from the fold, and subjected themselves to the trials of Matrimony.

Alpha Gamma Phi has played an important role in Campus Activities, and has furnished material for practically all of the Wesleyan Athletics. Captain Bullington, Pugh, Rader, Rodriguez, Rhodes, Craig, and Sharp all helped to make the 1928 Bobcats successful.

Even though used to more pretentious mansions, we have lived happily in our new home, and have enjoyed our beans and petty battles together.

The Fraternity loses twelve members this year through graduation, but regardless of this fact, we have lower classmen to replace them. Each of them has been beaten and found worthy to carry the Banner of Alpha Gamma Phi to still higher fame and honor.

The Sigma Eta Delta Fraternity

The Sigma Eta Delta Fraternity was the second fraternity granted a charter at Wesleyan. The charter was granted October 20, 1925, with seven members.

The purpose of the fraternity is to bring together a select group of Wesleyan men for mutual benefit, enjoyment, and to forward the interests of Wesleyan.

Each year new men are taken into the fraternity. This year sixteen "Plebes" were taken in and initiated into full membership the second semester.

Each year the social activities include one formal dance and two informals, and open house parties.

The Brothers are interested in College activities, having held some of the highest places of responsibility in the college. Also the fraternity claims the title of "The Athletic Fraternity", having represented the college in every phase of athletics, and at all times maintains a high standard of scholarship.

At present the fraternity house is on the campus.

The fraternity has the honor of having Dr. Leubers as faculty advisor.

Location of the College

West Virginia Wesleyan College is situated in the City of Buckhannon, which is no mean city. It is situated on Jaw Bone Run about ten miles from Century. It is easily accessible by the "Try Weekly", a crack flyer from Pickens to Weston. You can also get in on horseback or by aeroplane, providing you have a parachute Buckhannon is the natural center of the Pringle Industry, it being the source of the World's supply.

Buckhannon is a city of homes, schools, superannuated Ministers, gouty officers, and Professors. Curfew used to ring promptly at 8:30, but it woke every one so "The curfew shall not ring tonight". The only disturbance is the College Bell, and it doesn't ring at night any more.

Buckhannon is within easy bumming distance of Glen Elk, an exclusive country club, where students can spend a quiet Saturday night and maybe eternity. Buckhannon has many beautiful filling stations (Gas Stations), accessible refrigerators, famous old Sorority Houses, handy swinging bridges, and an abundance of sparking space.

Even though Buckhannon has a few faults, we believe that most cities would have many more. Any city that can harbor a group of College Students peacefully, must have "It", and after all it's a darn good town for the shape it is in.

College History

West Virginia Conference Seminary was established just after the Battle of Bull Run. It has endeavored to keep this great event ever fresh in the memories of the students, in fact the worthy fathers have succeeded. Even today one's attention is called to the fact that it is still running. Old Timers tell us that wild animals once haunted our beautiful Campus twelve months out of the year instead of nine. (They evidently refer to the days when the Athletes were kept in the Gym). This large tract of land which bordered on the B. & O., was purchased from the Indians by the Treasurer They were given a grand piano, and free tuition for a semester. They returned the piano next week, and presented it to the College, and it was accordingly placed in the Chapel. As soon as the students started to come in, the Indians, a peace loving people, emigrated to other campuses It is said that some hostile Tribes formed a conspiracy against the college, and built a tannery bordering upon our plashy terrain. All was well until the Volstead Act was passed, immediately the college was then able to secure a portly Faculty, and arrangements were made for repairing the spring which had been sadly neglected. All went well until someone squealed on the Sorority Girls. It seems that they were not properly observing Saturday Night. On this account a new Ladies' Hall was dug. There is a move on foot by the authorities to have Saturday Night devotions on Wednesday.

College Grounds, Buildings and Equipment

The Wesleyan Campus includes eleven hundred and sixty acres This is the total of all the land measured by dry measure, and the swamp measured by liquid As the earth is thick here at Wesleyan, and the land is considerably piled up, the surface composes of about two acres by the way the crow flies. The Campus is bounded on the west by "The Bob Cat", on the north by the Sigma Etta House, on the east by a Tannery, and on the south by our Submarine Golf Course. The campus is covered with beautiful and useful shrubbery. In the spring the trees are filled with singing birds, and the shrubs are filled with cooing students. In the center of the campus is an antique sundial. It won't tell time after dark, in fact, it won't tell anything. That's something to be thankful for. In the northeast corner of the campus is a beautiful spring. It gushes forth its fountain or crystal waters to soothe the brows of study-worn students. It also serves as a retreat for the frogs, who having escaped the scapel of Biological Students, sing during the spring and summer afternoons. Some say that this spring is an Oracle of Wesleyanus who breathes her nothings into the air. Students who have investigated say that there is sometimes a male voice talking with the deity, so we have our doubts.

Wesleyan proudly boasts of six (6) modern up-to-date buildings. They are Agony Hall, Moosick Hall, Gymnasium, Administration Building, Science Hall, and last but not least the Heating Plant. We also have a Modern Chicken House (not the Ladies' Hall). Agony Hall is the center of attraction. Here the Janes are kept, and when we say kept we mean it. The Moosick Hall is famous for its strange and mournful sounds. It sounds like Bluebeard doing his daily. The Science Hall is the house of strange odors. The Administration Building is the place where Tuition is paid. Here also are the Chapel Barracks, and the famous carpets on which students meet their dooms. The Heating Plant is a building built around the boilers to keep them from freezing up in the winter.

We are envied the world over on account of our equipment. We have a Faculty, one 1912 model clock, one 1890 model mule, eighteen dyspeptic frogs, twenty-one grand pianos, one pulpit, two Deans, one cracked bell, three hundred hymnals, and four hundred students not counting the dumb-bells in the Gym.

Boys' Dormitory

The Boys' Dorm. is the most recent addition to the campus tortures. It is a well built structure having both an inside and an outside. Through the efforts of the inmates this condition is being rapidly reversed. Here, boys are taken out of the arms of their parents and put in the care of the Gods. Here, they learn the art of wearing other peoples clothes, they cultivate that "Collegiate Reach". They are taught the art of beating in time, and that a handkerchief is not to be sneezed at.

The boys are instilled with high ideals. They learn to write home for money without even a comment on the weather; they learn that Co-Eds didn't come to College to learn, but to teach. It makes the poor unfortunates appreciate home, and they usually get there N. R. T. (No refund of Tuition).

Organizations

Student Government: This is the group that governs the Student Body of Wesleyan College. The authority of the school is vested in an executive group called the Student Council. They have nearly unlimited power over student affairs, but they seldom use it. They feel that the Faculty and the Shipping Committee might feel that some of their prestige had leaked out, so the Student Government sits idly by in favor of the stronger faction.

Campus Dancing Club: This club is sponsored by several of the professors, and holds its weekly meeting in the Ladies' Rest Room. The aim of this club is to get the students of Wesleyan interested in Dancing. This club has made great progress, and it is generally thought that dancing will be added to the course of study as soon as sufficient demand is created.

The Bob Cat Club: This club is dedicated to those men who are too light for football and too thick for chess. Here dominoes, and checkers help to pass the time away. There is some thought of adding tiddley winks to the sports, but some seem to think that tiddlers are prone to neglect the more important things in life.

Band: I speak not in parables, but in truth. We are proud of our Band, and we believe that this has been the most successful year since the organization started. Even though the Band has not made a public (or private) appearance this year, we have enjoyed it more than ever before.

Choir: A Choir is a body of people or individuals who sing. If that definition is true, we will not have to discuss that group who have taken this name upon themselves.

The Sight Seeing Club: This club was organized in February of this year. Their object is to see all that goes on during a given period, under bright illumination. This club meets every evening from eight till ten-twenty P. M. in the parlors of Agony Hall. We heartily believe in a future state of rewards, and punishments.

Astronomy Club: This club has been existing at Wesleyan for years, but it hasn't been recognized to a great extent on account of the Sorority Houses. Each male member is allowed to take one of the opposite sex as his co-partner in the study of the beautiful skies. The favorite meeting places of this club are: Swinging Bridge, River Bank, Sundial, Bleachers, and Music Hall Steps.

Fraternities and Sororities

Greek letter organizations are new on Wesleyan Campus, but they are endowed with the same spirit that made Old Athens famous for its learning. Every fraternity man and woman feels it his or her duty to so live that others seeing their good lives and good clothes, may profit thereby and become a member of said man or woman's group. The groups live in peace and harmony, and dissention is settled by the Dean or the Police.

The Pan-Hellanic is composed of representatives from the various groups on the campus. Here battles are fought and won. There is total disregard for sex, age, or beauty. Here, politics hold forth in a degree that would make Tammany Hall sulk in shame. The floor is white with the salty tears of fair damsels, and the ceiling is cracked from the profanity of the less fair.

Wesleyan is proud of her groups, and we believe that every possible angle of College life is represented by one of the organizations. Fraternities make country boys smart, and city boys snappy. They teach men to adjust themselves to their clothing, no matter what the size may be. Most of all they make men appreciate home. If you are in doubt concerning a Frat House, go around to the back door. "By their Back Doors Ye Shall Know Them."

Chi Alpha Taus: This group is just about as near civilized as any group on the campus. They have arrived at that state where they consider it ill mannered to blow one's coffee when it is cooling in a saucer. They boast of many Athletics, both kinds. They are hampered by quite a few tenor singers.

Sigma Eta Deltas: This group is known for its brotherly love, and its loyalty to the Bob Cats. They are addicted to white duck trousers, and just ordinary hats. They are noted for their scholastic ability. They have musicians in the group. Nuff Said.

Alpha Gamma Phi: The group that bears this name are none other than that gang of "Preachers". This monicker saves them lots of embarrassment as they are not often raided. The Alpha Gams are noted for their Bachelors, and for their love of knowledge. (What kind?) An Alpha Gam has the honor of being the first man to be thrown out of the new Ladies' Hall.

* * * * * *

Sororities have done as much as Fraternities to raise the cost of living on the campus. They create a feeling among the girls that nothing else can. We cannot dwell longer upon the groups as a whole because we, as well as all others on the campus, are absolutely ignorant of the doings of Sororities.

Chi Kappa Alpha: The Chi Kaps are just naturally the latest thing in College Belles. They have more men to their credit than Davy Jones, and what we mean they stay put.

Sigma Delta Chi: This group is made up of popular young ladies from the best homes in the State. Their chief hobby is winning popularity contests. They also have quite a few athletes to their credit. More power to you.

Kappa Phi Omega: Well boys, here's your Waterloo. This group prides itself upon its hospitality. Stronger terms could not describe the situation better. They pride themselves upon their scholastic ability as well. This is the only group that could live next to a Prof. for a semester, and still have members left.

Sigma Pi Delta: This group still has some aspects of the original girl. They never lived in a Sorority House, and as a result, they know how to get away with things with the Dean looking right at them. This group prides themselves upon their students, and not a little upon their drag at the Dorm.

"College Expenses"

You'd be surprised. Come and see.

Committees

KEY HOLE:

COMMITTEE OF SHIPMENT:

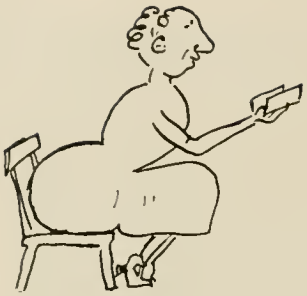
COLLEGE SITTING (formerly Standing Committee):

Rimmed Ike Himself.



Oh, ye who have been college students,
Ye who have served four years' time,
Give ear to this poor tale of sorrow;
A story of unpunished crime!
Of cruelty that went all unnoticed
By parents that sent us here
To be taught the knowledge of ages;
Instead we are compelled by fear.

I know, we have smiles on our faces.
To be brave, we appear not to care,
And the knife-thrusts from hardened professors
We have learned how to nobly bear.
By a bell knelling threatening terror
We must start out to fight the good fight
While the shadows of darkness are fleeting
Still from the blackness of night.

With our ties streaming boldly behind us
We brandish a comb through our hair,
And across the campus we hasten
With stomachs of nourishment bare.
We meet with a wan smile our classmates.
We cannot discern who they are,
For eyes that are still dim with sleeping
Cannot see by the light of a star.

It matters not how wet the weather
Nor whether we faint or we fall,
At that unearthly hour of the morning
We pile out at the bell's first call.
And then in the classroom, we crumble
Into an unbearably hard seat
To find that our spirits are broken,
And our shoes are on the wrong feet.

Oh, I know that our faces look funny,
And our eyes fail to open up wide,
But you wouldn't laugh at us thusly
If you looked at the tragic side;
In the depths of our souls is the pathos
Of ambition that's thwarted and gone.
As in through the class room window
Burst loudly the first rays of dawn.

Oh, ye who will take time to heed me,
Please list' how we poor students fare!
These are the loads we are lifting;
These are the crosses we bear.
Comfort we've given for knowledge;
From wearying work we are numb.
If we can't get our rest and our daily bread,
Can we help it if we appear dumb?
